Scavenger Hunt Questions
Developed by Linda MacDonald of the Diocesan School, Auckland

Visit the Project Icefish website at www.icefish.neu.edu to find the answers to the following “Scavenger hunt” questions.

1. ICEFISH is a mnemonic, a word made of initials of the project title. What do the letters stand for?
2. How much of the world’s fresh water is locked up in the Antarctic icecap?
3. How does Antarctica rank in continental size?
4. What countries are represented by the international team of scientists on Icefish?
5. Three of the Scientists are from Auckland. Who are they, and what do they hope to do with Mitochondrial DNA?
6. What is the name of the Project ICEFISH 2004 ship, and for whom was it named?
7. What happens if the laundry on board ship is used during rough weather?
8. What is cabin accommodation like?
9. Who is the ship captain?
10. How many fishing sample sites are propose for South Georgia?
11. What is peculiar about Antarctic “Icefish”?
12. What are “benthic invertebrates”?
13. What is the upper lethal temperature limit for Antarctic fish?
14. Why are marine organisms of the Arctic and Antarctic considered to be “Canaries in the coalmine” for global warming?
15. The Patagonian toothfish is under threat – what is the source of this threat?